A few days ago, Brady, Hailey and I got to see a mommy raccoon and her 4 babies coming down the tree on our back porch. They hung out long enough for us to admire them and then they were off.

This morning, Smokey brought over a mommy raccoon and her 2 babies. Somehow they managed to get in his attic downtown. It was fun to let the kids see and hear them up close. They were so cute!

