Aside from hitting a deer, we planned to take some equipment to the lakehouse for Brady's father, take a tour of the new properties, relax and let Hailey sleep on the big boat for a night. Smokey purchased a bait shop called the Tackle Box and a larger store in a great location near one of the marinas. I liked them both and I hope they do well when they get up and running. The area can benefit from these two places being open.

This is Hailey's lucky ladybug that she let go Saturday morning.

We went with Smokey Saturday morning and toured 'Hailey's Hideaway'- one of the cabins in a wooded area. Hunter had fun walking along and poking sticks into the ground. Hailey played 'Adventure Hailey' with me and we also played Hansel and Gretel (one of her favorite games to pretend). This time we found sticks, a faded out turtle shell and one bone.

This was taken right after Hunter told me he was cranky and sleepy!

We had a great weekend and were enjoying being on the water. The weather was nice and we had a great time.
