After saying goodbye to Papa and Rhonda, the girls had their picture taken in front of a potato field that was to the side of our hotel. They were wearing their shirts Rhonda made for them.

Then Daenon, Jennifer, their girls and us drove to the farm. We visited with them for a bit inside and then we took a riding tour of the property in Cal's truck. Brady, Daenon and Hunter followed behind in the rental car. Hailey got another taste of farm life from the large flies to the smell of money.
