FRIENDS!
After we opened up presents, the girls really wanted to watch the new Tinkerbell movie Hailey received from her daddy. So I spread out the picnic blanket and let them have a bite to eat and drink while they watched the movie for about 15 minutes. Hunter kept busy by giving them mini pumpkins. Then we moved the food and the party into the kitchen for cake!
CAKE TIME!
Hailey wanted to have the Ariel part for her piece so Brady sliced a section for her. We sang Happy Birthday and Brady handed out cake for all the girls to enjoy. Hunter was most excited about this part and kept saying "Want Birthday". The cake was yummy but had about a 2 inch layer of just icing! At this point, the girls became really silly and kept making comments that made Hailey laugh.

My little PRINCESS
When parents started arriving, Hailey handed out the favor bags and their take home balloons. These bags were fun for me to assemble this year. Each bag had: Bubble-gum chapstick, a princess wallet, 2 rings, princess snacks, and a light up wand which I found out later left a sparkle residue on their hands. I also included the crafts they made and of course the paper princess crowns! It was a fun day for Hailey. Thank-you everyone for coming to Hailey's party!
