Last Wednesday when I took Hailey in to get her hair cut, I had them trim up Hunter's hair as well. His curls were getting super long. I have trimmed his bangs and the back twice before but it has never been all evened up. I love his curls but he was getting too many "pretty boy" compliments. Now his hair has some wave to it and lays better when I brush it out and doesn't look like an old man comb-over!
