

Our Week Long Trip To Arizona- November 22, 2008

Written by Camey

Thursday, 04 December 2008 18:00 -

Last Saturday, we began our journey to Arizona. This was Hunter's second time to fly and about the 7th or so for Hailey! They were both very well behaved on the flight. I packed 4 suitcases. Too many for us to carry. I vow never to do that again. It makes getting places cumbersome while trying to juggle the children with a small, compact, not so good stroller!

Thanks for our gifts Tessa and Rob!

When we arrived, Hailey reunited with her cousin Michael. She loves to play with him and they quickly bonded. Hunter was happy to play with a new buddy (Nathan) especially his cool toys! We all wore OU colors and watched an exciting game that OU won! On Sunday, I went to church with Tessa and watched her conduct RS. Brady took the kids for some sight-seeing. Aunt Tessa spoiled Hailey with a rootbeer float and lots of cool craft goodies for Christmas!