On Friday or was it Saturday? They boiled up a nice big pot full of crab, potatoes, corn and shrimp. The other night we had pizza's on the grill. It smelled so good. I am allergic to crab so I didn't partake and was perfectly content with delicious leftovers. I can eat leftovers for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Hunter was game to try the shrimp and liked the bites he was given. Hailey missed out on the entire thing because she fell asleep and took a really long nap. Good job guys!
