I love peas. Most people find these little green things yucky but I do not. I have always loved peas. We had a spiral cut ham for Easter and Fran sent the ham bone with me to use. I made some pea soup with it tonight. The picture does not look appetizing but it was delicious!

