Since going to Arizona isn't an option today to put flowers on Nana's grave, this is what we came up with! Hailey had fun learning how to make paper flowers. We had to improvise on the stems. I was out of pipe cleaners so we used Brady's computer cable ties. Happy Birthday Nana!

