

Written by Camey

Thursday, 06 August 2009 00:00 - Last Updated Friday, 07 August 2009 06:12

Hailey showed me the places they went on their walk yesterday and I took a few pictures of it. Hunter was excited to see the "invisible water" and he wound up scraping his side when he lost his footing. Like Hailey, he is a tough kid.

We visited with Papa and Rhonda in their room for a bit and then drove to Union Station where we met up with Daenon, Jennifer, Kaelee and Kimber, Alice, Scott, Benjamin, Joshua, Caleb, Xela and Caroline. My Uncle John and Aunt Sandi met us there also but I didn't get to talk to them long. It was too hard to coordinate being in one place for too long! We toured all three museums. The train, Browning and car museums were good. I think the children liked the trains the best though inside and out!

Written by Camey

Thursday, 06 August 2009 00:00 - Last Updated Friday, 07 August 2009 06:12

Hunter enjoyed talking to baby Caroline. He loves little babies.

Friday, July 24th in Ogden, UT- Union Station, Farr's Ice Cream, Big Rock Overlook & State Park

Written by Camey

Thursday, 06 August 2009 00:00 - Last Updated Friday, 07 August 2009 06:12

Hailey enjoyed talking to Kimber at lunch. Hunter was exhausted and slept through it!

Friday, July 24th in Ogden, UT- Union Station, Farr's Ice Cream, Big Rock Overlook & State Park

Written by Camey

Thursday, 06 August 2009 00:00 - Last Updated Friday, 07 August 2009 06:12

Getting a glimpse into the past was definitely a highlight of the experience. It is one of the best of the best. The trip was a great one. The kids had a great time. The trip was a great one. The kids had a great time.

Written by Camey

Thursday, 06 August 2009 00:00 - Last Updated Friday, 07 August 2009 06:12

Friday, July 24th in Ogden, UT- Union Station, Farr's Ice Cream, Big Rock Overlook & State Park

Written by Camey

Thursday, 06 August 2009 00:00 - Last Updated Friday, 07 August 2009 06:12

at the end of the day, we went to the Big Rock Overlook & State Park. The view is beautiful and the kids had a great time. We also had a picnic on the grass. The weather was perfect and we enjoyed every minute of it.

Friday, July 24th in Ogden, UT- Union Station, Farr's Ice Cream, Big Rock Overlook & State Park

Written by Camey

Thursday, 06 August 2009 00:00 - Last Updated Friday, 07 August 2009 06:12

we all ventured back to the hotel for showers and some rest. It was a long, good day!

Written by Camey

Thursday, 06 August 2009 00:00 - Last Updated Friday, 07 August 2009 06:12

Playing is hard work!