We tidied up the area from our day of play and the kids watched some fireworks Daenon bought for the kids to enjoy.

Brent left grandmother and locked the house up while he took Maxine home. We were all headed to the hotel to swim! When we got to the tractor store, I realized I had left my phone inside grandmother's house. So we turned around. I knocked on the door but no answer. The kitchen window was open so I called out to grandmother and told her what I was up too. She was already undressed and the lights were out. I felt so bad. I knew Brent was going to come over to the hotel with us and I wasn't sure if he would come back to the house first or not. So once she came to the door, I gathered my things and then she decided that she was just going to sit on the porch in the dark and just wait for Brent. I tried to encourage her to go inside but she refused. I couldn't leave her on the porch alone. So I told Brady to take the kids to the hotel because I didn't want them to miss out on swimming. Brent did arrive and found us on the porch. He convinced her to go back in after a few minutes of explaining why. She says she does it all the time but we didn't want her to have an accident, etc. Brent drove me to the hotel. Hailey was in the pool already but he and Hunter were not. He was waiting on me. Brent wanted to talk to Daenon, Ryan and myself so we chatted in the doorway. Brady just decided to jump in with his clothes on. Hunter was thrilled. They were exhausted after such a long day and fell asleep fast.
