The children woke up and found the note from "Hermes" the Elf. Then they went to check the rooftop to see if those reindeer made a visit. They did! Hailey remembered that last year Rudolf bit the food bowl. Silly deer!

Then Daddy went downstairs to tell the people's we were coming down. We waited in the hallway with Michael, Kelsey and Zivi. Over the past few weeks, we have been retelling stories of our childhood Christmas memories to Hailey. She liked the waiting in the hallway stories and me telling her about when I woke up early one Christmas morning, took a peek and then went back to bed. I was about 8 years or so!
