Five years ago my mother passed away. I have purposely blocked this day out in my head over the last year. Her birthday and memories have become more vivid in my mind. However I do not wish to forget. I still miss her terribly. She would do anything for anyone if they were in need. She loved being a grandmother too. One day she will get that opportunity again.

HAPPY FIVE YEARS IN HEAVEN MOTHER!

