The H's and I drove to Houston in late July to see Papa and Rhonda. It was a nice trip and they were so good on that long (sometimes boring) drive there and back.

Rhonda always has stuff that the kids are interested in looking at or doing. This time it was Papa's large beads and a whole mess of keys that Hunter was so happy to get to take home!

They were doing great! We had a great time and they were really good at making

It was a great day and we had a lot of fun. The kids were really happy and we had a great time.

We made a great stop on the way and we had a great time. The kids were really happy and we had a great time.
