When Grayson was born, he received these two keepsake crocheted blankets. I love these kind of blankets the best because they are soft, snuggly, usuable and are the perfect blanket for car seats in the winter because they stay put. I also love them because someone took the time to make something so beautiful and useful! Rhonda crocheted him one and Scott's grandmother crocheted the other. (Scott is an employee and friend who works for Brady.)

