Grayson has been eating easy to dissolve snacks for awhile. He loves his snacks and really food in general. He went from leaning forward to mouthing up his snacks out of our hands to pincer grasping them to now if they don't quite go in right away to using the back of his hand to push those yummy treats in his mouth. He's a cutie!

