School has been in session for a little over a week. Back to going to bed/rise times, school lunches and the dreaded homework. I miss them here at home. Its quiet with just Grayson babbling and playing. He loves to see them after school. They are off to a great start and I hope it stays that way. They both have already brought home slight bug germs and passed them to us. Luckily it has just been the sniffles. Oh the joys of germs at school. Hunter has a sweet teacher that has been teaching for 15 years. Love her. Hailey has a brand new teacher. I think she will do well. They both got new backpacks and new lunch boxes this year. Hunter wants to wear his latest pair of Nike shoes and matching socks everyday. It cracks me up.

* And YES Hailey has a bruised up eye. Just her luck she somehow woke up with it a couple days before school started. She said she dreamed her eye was hurting.

Can't forget our traditional back to school haircuts and piggy paint! She chose teal this year.
