Hailey took the old strawberry plot this year and planted some items. Her flowers are absolutely beautiful in the morning and evening light. Hunter is growing watermelons. He has several and I hope they continue to do well. They are so cute!

