The weather is beautiful here today- a wee bit windy but it is pleasant to be outside and soak up some comfortable weather! The Bradford Pear trees are blooming now and Hailey now spots them all over town. She will say "Another sign of Spring!". I am anxious to get outdoors, clean up, plant some pretty flowers and get our tomato garden started. My favorite time of the year is Fall but Spring is a welcome change!