When Spring arrives everything that was dormant gets happy and grows. This includes the lovely weeds. Purple chickweed looks so pretty at first. Then it slowly takes over and gets all brown and when it is in this state you realize you should have put down that yearly preventative measure of weed killers and grass fertilizers.

